

Conference Program

Wednesday, November 5, 2003

9:00 a.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Welcoming Remarks

- George Bush, 41st President of the United States

Keynote Speakers - China-U.S. Relations Since Normalization

- General Colin Powell, United States Secretary of State
- Dr. Henry Kissinger, Former United States Secretary of State
- Mr. Qian Qichen, Former Vice Premier of the State Council of the People's Republic of China

Plenary Session I: China-U.S. Relations: Opportunities and Challenges

- Dr. Arnold Kanter, Former United States Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs
- Mr. Yang Jiechi, Ambassador of the People's Republic of China to the United States
- Admiral Joseph W. Prueher, Former United States Ambassador to the People's Republic of China
- Dr. Yuan Ming, Professor and Director of the American Studies Center, Peking University
- Dr. David M. Lampton, Professor and Director of China Studies, Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies

Plenary Session II: Global and Regional Security Issues

- Trends and Prospects
- Roles and Responsibilities of China and U.S.
- Security Issues in Northeast Asia
- Security Issues in South and Southeast Asia
- Terrorism
- WMD Proliferation
- Military Modernization and Force Deployments
- General Xiong Guangkai, Deputy Chief of General Staff, People's Liberation Army
- General Brent Scowcroft, United States Former National Security Advisor
- Dr. Yan Xuetong, Professor and Director of the Institute of International Studies, Tsinghua University

Keynote Speakers (Introductions by Mr. Chris Galvin, Chairman and CEO, Motorola, Inc.)

- Mr. James A. Baker, III, Former United States Secretary of State
- Mr. Yang Jiechi, Ambassador of the People's Republic of China to the United States

Thursday, November 6, 2003

9:00 a.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Welcoming Remarks

- Dr. David B. Prior, Executive Vice President and Provost, Texas A&M University

Plenary Session III: *Economic Trends and Prospects

- The Global Economy and the Chinese Economy: Implications of Each for the Other
- The Global Economy and the U.S. Economy: Implications of Each for the Other
- Mr. Malcolm Williamson, President and CEO, VISA International
- Mr. Michael Ducker, Executive Vice President-International, FedEx Corporation
- Mr. Song Xiaowu, Director General, China Macro-Economic Research Institute, National State Development and Reform Commission of the State Council
- Mr. John L. Thornton, Professor and Director of Global Leadership, Tsinghua University
- Mr. Zheng Hu, Vice President, China National Petroleum Corporation

Plenary Session IV: *Trade and Investment: Doing Business in and Between China and the U.S.

- Dr. William H. Mobley, Professor of Management, China Europe International Business School, Shanghai
- Mdm. Ma Xiuhong, Vice Minister, Ministry of Foreign Trade and Economic Cooperation, People's Republic of China
- Mr. Bi Jiyao, Deputy Director, Foreign Economic Research Institute, State Development and Reform Commission of the State Council
- Mr. Kevin G. Nealer, Partner, The Scowcroft Group

Keynote Speaker (Introduction by Dr. Huichi Ming, Chairman, Hong Kong Association of International Investment)

- Mr. Long Yongtu, Secretary-General of Boao Forum for Asia

Plenary Session V: *Building Partnerships in Science and Technology

- Dr. Min Weifang, Executive Vice President and Chairman of the University Council, Peking University
- Dr. Norman Neureiter, Senior Advisor, Science and Technology, United States Department of State
- Mdm. Deng Nan, Vice Minister, Ministry of Science and Technology, People's Republic of China
- Dr. Norman Borlaug, Distinguished Professor of International Agriculture and Professor of Soil and Crop Sciences, Texas A&M University
- Dr. Zhu Wenyi, Vice Dean, School of Architecture and Planning, Tsinghua University

Friday, November 7, 2003

8:15 a.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Welcoming Remarks

- Dr. Robert M. Gates, President, Texas A&M University

Plenary Session VI: Models for Future Cooperation: Agriculture, Education and Energy

- Dr. Chen Zhangliang, President of China Agricultural University
- Mr. Jim Moseley, Deputy Secretary of Agriculture, United States Department of Agriculture
- Mr. John L. Killmer, President, Monsanto Greater China
- Mr. Peng Xiaofei, Chairman, Caltex Companies (Greater China) Limited, ChevronTexaco

Plenary Session VII: *Promoting Educational Exchange and Research in the Chinese-U.S. Relationship

- Mdm. Hao Heming, First Vice President of China Education Association for International Exchange and Chairperson, Board of Directors of Chinese Council of Education Development Strategy
- Dr. Liu Zhiyong, Deputy Director General, Department of Informational Sciences, National Natural Science Foundation of China
- Dr. Marye Anne Fox, Chancellor, North Carolina State University
- Dr. Min Weifang, Executive Vice President and Chairman of the University Council, Peking University
- Mr. Alexander P. De Angelis, Regional Coordinator, East Asia and Pacific Program, Office of International Science and Engineering, National Science Foundation

Concurrent Roundtable Sessions

- Altered Landscapes and Environmental Responses to Transformations (ALERT)
- Food Safety: The Rural Imperative
- Higher Education During a Time of Transition
- Information Technology and Applications
- Integrating Science, Education, and IT in Cross-Cultural Settings
- New Venture Growth Strategies in China's High Technology Industries: Internal Growth vs. Alliances with Foreign Direct Investment
- Opportunities and Challenges in Doing Business and Trade in China-U.S.
- Plant Molecular Biology and Biotechnology
- Reducing the WMD Threat on the Korean Peninsula and from Terrorism
- Research and Development on Energy Production
- SARS: Crisis and Opportunity of Global Public Health
- Scientific Development of Traditional Chinese Medicine to Address the Aging World
- Sustainable Community Planning, Design and Construction

The program is subject to change without prior notice. The confirmation of some speakers is pending.

Saturday, November 8, 2003

8:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

Concurrent Plenary Session VIII: *Recommendations from Working Sessions on Future Directions

Natural Sciences

- Dr. Richard E. Ewing, Vice President for Research, Texas A&M University

Social Sciences

- Dean Richard Chilcoat, Bush School of Government and Public Service

Treasures of China

August 2, 2003 – January 4, 2004

This unique George Bush Presidential Library and Museum exhibit, which will surround the China-U.S. Relations conference, will broaden Americans' interest in China's ancient history and traditions. It will juxtapose contemporary Chinese art with its ancient counterparts. Thirty exotic paintings will surround Neolithic pottery, Tang sculpture, and jade carvings. The elegance of fluid lines, the exquisite sense of color, and the deft mastery of subject matter seen in Chinese art of the past serve as enduring art forms to major Chinese artists of today.

President Bush's extensive collection of Chinese scroll art, both old and new, will make its debut during this exhibit. Many of these pieces are valued gifts from Chinese friends dating from Mr. Bush's time in China as the American Liaison to China in 1974 and 1975. Additionally, selected pieces from prominent American collections will be exhibited.